Dear Jeane:

I was delighted to learn that you have accepted our invitation to be the Agency's Guest Speaker on Tuesday, 20 March 1984.

My colleagues and I will be most interested to hear your reflections on the "Academician's View of the United Nations," or any related topic of your choice. I am sure we will have a capacity audience that day.

Sometime prior to your visit, our Dean of Conferences, will provide your office with details.

I look forward to seeing you on 20 March.

Yours,

WJ

Dear Jeane:

Several times a year, we invite distinguished guest speakers to address some 300 to 500 employees of the Central Intelligence Agency. Our objective is to improve our employees' understanding of national and international issues as well as to provide them an intellectual stimulus. Among recent guests have been The Honorable Anne L. Armstrong, former Attorney General Griffin Bell, Barbara Tuchman, and Ambassador Malcolm Toon. I believe the program, now in its tenth year, has been very successful.

I would be very pleased if you could be our guest speaker here at CIA Headquarters. I would suggest 17 January 1984 but would be happy to accommodate your schedule if that date is not convenient. Our program normally consists of a lecture of approximately 30 to 40 minutes, followed by a 20 to 30 minute question period. Lectures are usually scheduled from 1500-1615 hours. Your reflections on the "Academician's View of the United Nations," or any related topic of your choice, would be of keen interest to our audience.

I hope you are able to accept this invitation.
[redacted] will be pleased to discuss any arrangements with your staff. She can be reached on [redacted]
